The farmhouse is placed on the triangle among Florence, Siena and Arezzo. The location is really excellent since is central and close to all the major art cities of Tuscany and Umbria. Our holiday house has been created by the lovingly and painstakingly restoration of a XVII century farmhouse. the complex is divided into one cottage and three apartments, and is set on a panoramic position on the gentle slopes that descend towards the Arno river. The Compound is surrounded by a large garden area equipped with tables, chairs and canopies, with of 7 x 12 meters swimming pool that has a part for children (3x3 meters). The apartments have been tastefully finished, and fully furnished and are all provided with TV sat, and their own heating system. Communal Laundry room with washing machine and iron.
