Delightful apartment completely restored according Tuscan style, located in the historical charming medieval hamlet of Gavorrano. Gavorrano is placed on the top of a hill, few kilometres far from the Follonica gulf seaside and the beautiful beaches of Punta Ala and Castiglione della Pescaia. The place is very quiet and panoramic with a great view over the countryside to the sea where the sun set in a gorgeous sight. The landscape is the typical Tuscan one with vine-yards, olive grove, rows of cypresses and Mediterranean flora with its beautiful colours and scents.

The apartment, recently fully restored, is really picturesque with attractive wooden- beam ceiling and antique terracotta floor maintaining the original features and the charm of the period when it was built. The apartment is placed at the ground floor of a characteristic two-storied building in a typical little street. You have a small kitchen, a living-room a double bed divan, one bedroom with a double bed and a bath with shower box.

Activiteiten

It's a strategic and ideal location being near to the sea (10 km) and to towns of art such as Siena (60 km), Massa Marittima (20 km), Pisa (100 km), Lucca (125 km), Firenze (125 km), Roma (185 km). Easy reach of Elba and Giglio isles by boat. The famous archaeological areas of Populonia, Vetulonia and Roselle and the well known natural park of Uccellina, Castiglione della Pescaia and Punta Ala are few kilometres far away. For people who loves to bathe during winter, spring and fall time the Venturina Thermal baths (springs) are open all year round. Gavorrano is located on the Wine Road and so it's an ideal place for tasting excellent wine (the most famous D.O.C. Monteregio di Massa Marittima and the Suvereto) and eating good Tuscan dishes. In fact there are a lot of restaurants where you can appreciate delicious food and wine.
