The penthouse Ático Chayofa is located in the housing complex La Finca, at the entrance of the development Águilas del Teide, one of the best residential areas in Tenerife South. The development, Águilas del Teide is of recent construction and it is mainly composed of villas and well-kept gardens. There is a tennis court, a mini-market and a couple of restaurants as well. Penthouse Ático Chayofa is a very cosy and bright apartment mostly thanks to its big windows in the living-room and bedrooms. The decoration and furniture in bamboo stands in good contrast with the white walls and provides thereby a very summer-like atmosphere to the apartment.

Activities

Leisure activities: restaurants, discos, thematic parks, boat trips, water sports, etc. Playa de las Américas is very touristic. Its seafront is very characteristic. Good shopping streets. Playa de los Cristianos has a fishing port and a harbour with ferry connections to different islands. In its streets you can taste plenty of fish and seafood. At approx. 10 minutes car drive toward north you will find the small fishing town Las Galletas with its marvellous beaches of black sand. Near Playa de las Galletas you can also visit Costa del Silencio, known for its large sea pool. Here you can enjoy a nice walk along the coast. All in all, the perfect location to discover the island: hiking, riding or paragliding; coast and mountains
