The house is fully equipped to provide maximum comfort to the visitor. Inside, the house contains a dining-room-kitchen fully equipped with vitroceramic stove, refrigerator, microwave, a living room with satellite television, bathroom (shower), one bedroom with double bed and one bedroom with 2 individual beds. The washing machine has been installed in an independent room. Our guests will find in the outdoor areas a furnished courtyard where they can have breakfast or a BBQ under the shade of a hundred year old palm tree, and a swimming pool.

Casa las Perez is located in the romantic and peaceful small town of Las Vegas, in the municipal district of Granadilla de Abona, south of Tenerife. Surrounded by cliffs and a lush vegetation, Casa las Perez offers a unique and exclusive space away from the mass tourist areas. The guests, however, can enjoy all the services: shops, restaurants and bars at around 2 km. The Teide national park is the outstanding feature in the various nearby natural areas surrounding the house that offer the opportunity to practice many nature activities. El Médano and Los Abrigos, only 20 minutes away from the house, are old fishing towns with the best natural beaches of the island. Guests will find there the possibility to practice water sports and to discover the gastronomy of the islands.
