BED AND BREAKFAST Being a guest at B&B Goudsbloempje is enjoying a 'no worries' break in a quiet surrounding. This tastefully decorated villa is the ideal base for great cycling or hiking holidays. On bright mornings you can enjoy full breakfast on the sun patio, overlooking the picturesque Carthusian church, the beautiful garden and orchard. You will appreciate our homemade breads and preserves, freshly squeezed fruit juice, croissants or breakfast rolls and a choice of cold meat. After an invigorating outing you can spend a relaxing evening in front of the open fire, enjoy a good film or book from our own library or gather around a boardgame or a deck of cards. For the musiclovers our piano is waiting. Our two cosy guestrooms, with sitting corner, also have free internet.

Activities

Enjoy the quiet and silence of the countryside. Let your eyes wander over the beautiful views that you will discover in the Flemish Ardennes. Follow one of the cycling circuits, and learn about their link with local history: the Teirlinckroute, Egmontroute, Pateroute or go for a real challenge and take the M-route who will lead you to the Muur, the steep climb to the top of the Oudenberg, where you will discover breathtaking views over the area. And these are not the only routes! If you prefer hiking you will also find a network of footpaths and circuits, there's even a Goudsbloem walk. Indulge yourselves and taste the local produce: the 'mattentaart', local beers and cheeses. Visit the ancient market town of Geraardsbergen (Grammont in English) with its market square, churches and museums, the original 'Manneken Pis'.
