In the winter months you can burn some wood in the stove. From the living room you have direct access to a spacious terrace. Downstairs there is an old water tank converted into a swimming pool.

Activities

The house is in Cerdeira (Cova da Alva) in the interior of Portugal, between Porto (170km) and Lisbon (270km). The nearest big city is Coimbra (65km). Close by are slightly larger towns like Arganil (18km) and Tábua (23km). The Atlantic coast with his beautiful beaches and charming resorts are located on a small 100 km from the house. The cottage is situated at the foot of two mountain ranges: Serra do Açor and Serra da Estrela. These are natural areas with many forests, rivers and the highest peaks of Portugal. In the region there are many opportunities for walking, cycling or touring by car or motorbike. Who wants to cooling off can go to different villages on the river Alva with riverbeaches. The waterfalls and nature of Fraga da Pena (7 km) is highly recommended. Also, several traditional villages and towns are worth visiting.
