Manoir Seguinnet - 6 Bedrooms, sleeps 12. Manoir Seguinnet is a beautiful 200 year old stone house. The interior has been exquisitely renovated to expose it's fabulous stonework and has high ceilings, tall doors and windows and a long tiled hallway. There are four reception rooms, three of which lead onto a large patio and the heated swimming pool (11m by 5 m) area. The dining room has a lovely old fashioned log burner and is situated next to the large well equipped kitchen. A magnificent wooden staircase leads to three bedrooms and a family bathroom in the right wing, which overlook the courtyard. The first bedroom has a king size four poster bed, the second has twin beds and the third has a double bed. There are three further bedrooms with en-suite showers in the left wing. Two rooms have double beds while the third has twin beds.

Activities

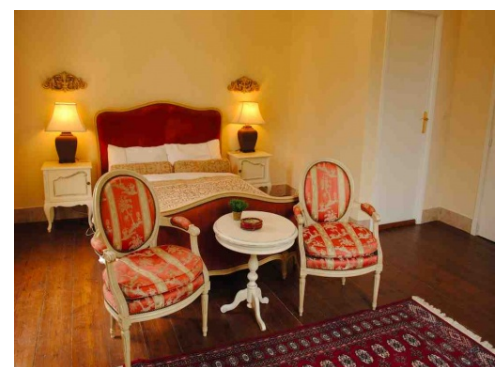

Seguinnet is a 18 acre domaine comprising gardens, orchards, fields and woodlands. It has a trout fishing lake, where the annual fishing competition, organised by the Saint Front village committee, is held each June. We have fishing rods, which can be borrowed by guests, for use on the property. There are lots of seating areas around with outdoor furniture and each property has a barbecue. There are swings for children to play on and table tennis equipment as well as a badminton net and racquets. There is a small rowing boat on the lake which guests may use and a couple of cycles which can also be borrowed. Please note that there may be shared use of the main house swimming pool on certain dates only. Our ancient region of Aquitaine is steeped in history with many churches and castles to visit.
