Zadar is lovely town with unmistakable Roman plan of streets and Forum. It's adorned with plentitude of early Christian, Romanesque, Renaissance and Baroque buildings and churches. In Zadar you can spend quality time visiting museums, attending concerts (Musical evenings in st. Donat or Strings Only), taking historic and scenic tours. Immediate vicinity of the town is covered with lush Mediterranean vegetation and more interesting sites either of historical importance or of enormous natural beauty. Variety of restaurants placed in cozy old town of Zadar offers domestic cuisine, fresh fish, organic vegetables, simple and delicious national dishes. Right in the centre of Zadar there is large fish market as well as farmers market with homegrown products. Sea water is pristine and refreshing like nowhere else in Mediterranean and you can choo
