Activities

You will find a tourist information book in the cottage. We will be glad to tell you more about specialties (markets, restaurants, caves, etc). The Dordogne is well known for its prehistoric values, castles and gastronomic specialties (like the "truffle" and the "foie gras"). When you are visiting the region, do not forget to see the old historic city of Périgueux (Roman) and the cave of Lascaux (Montignac). Also a visit to the markets in the surroundings could be very pleasant. Within a distance of 30 km., you will find several rivers and lakes, where you have the possibility to swim, to canoe or to fish. If you like to ramble, various footpaths are marked in the forests. These paths are also ideal to discover on a mountain bike. On 2 km. you find a horse riding school (possibilities on reservation).
